

2015 Neighborhood Block Party

Mayor Stothert and Apostle Vanessa Ward come together to kick off the 2015 Community Block Party. The day was full of food, family, friends and fellowship with no drugs, no alcohol, and no violence.

The 2015 Community Block Party attended by 800 people was hosted and put on by Apostle Vanessa Ward provided for a great day of sunshine, community, and fun for all.

The 2015 Community Block Party provided great fun for adults and children. Events included face painting, basketball, bounce house, free haircuts, live music and more. Local neighborhood kids came together for a day full of friendly games of basketball and free sno cones.

